v.)	MEMORANDUM AND ORDER
)
DENISE L. SCHAWANG,)
)
Defendant.)

The defendant has moved for a forty-five day continuance of the pretrial motion deadline. (Filing No. 19). Defense counsel explains he needs additional time to review discovery received from the government, evaluate whether additional documentation must be obtained, determine the necessity of filing pretrial motions, and effectively prepare for trial. Counsel for the government does not oppose the defendant's motion. The court finds the defendant's motion should be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) Defendant's unopposed motion to continue, (filing no. 19), is granted and defendant's pretrial motions and briefs shall be filed on or before October 12, 2009.
- 2) The ends of justice will be served by granting such a motion, and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, and the additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, the time between today's date and October 12, 2009, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, for the reason that the parties require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, the novelty and complexity of the case, and the fact that the failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 28th day of August, 2009.
